Office Order

In order to ensure that the valid and legitimate student appear in the examination of LL.B. First Year being conducted at various centres, it is necessary that the students must carry an identity card issued by the concerned college where he or she is studying. For University his or her entity as a student can only be verified by an identity card issued by the college and not by any other identity proof. Please make sure that same is ensued for smooth conduct of remaining examinations. It is necessary to maintain the sanctity of the system.
